

Mirror Mirror On the Wall

- To be angry with another, in the eyes of God, is murder.
- God is not apart from us judging us.
- "You can not be saved by the law."
- No one can keep the law.
- Christ came to fulfill the law.
- If your marriage is for you, your marriage is at risk.
- He has to be three to be one.
- You are still carnal because you think what you think you are.
- It takes grace to keep His commandments.
- You have to step back from yourself, "does that bare witness to God"?
- How movable are you from the external world?
- It's what you are immovable on that speaks to others.
- An immovable pillar brings stability.
- Your life has to be connected to the life of the church.
- Man looks at the outward but God looks at the heart.

- The law can not save us.
- What stands between you and the Kingdom?
- What are you looking at, what are you touching for gratification?
- Divorce is not in the court, it is in the heart.
- You are hurting people when you are not honest with them.
- Appearance is the mother of self-centeredness.
- Ultimately a man is going to say what is in his heart.”
- “Time will tell”
- “You have all things”
- Encouragement is accepting you the way you are, and helping you get to where you are supposed to be.