

Beware: Stranger Danger

- You can listen without hearing.
- There is no transformation without suffering.
- Suffering is for empowerment.
- Strangers come looking attractive.
- A stranger is always going to speak to your emotional man.
- What do you want for the future?
- Gods grace is sufficient for any suffering you have to endure.
- Deception is the idea that we need more.
- Eve was already like God.
- Our fellowship should be around, what is God doing in my life.
- A need is a necessity, not a want.
- We live in a generation of fads.
- If you need to be excited to stay committed to the church, then you will need to be excited in every part of your life.
- A decision and believing in God doesn't save you.
- You are saved through the Holy Orders.

- Happiness is a form of mental illness for a believer.
- You can't be attached to the cause of something big if you are only focused on how you feel.
- "WE BELIEVE"
- Suffering tests our devotion.
- Our healing comes from His suffering.
- Love is expressed in truth.
- An idle soul is the devils playground.
- Never trust an un-submitted voice.
