

It's Time To Rebuild

- Unbuilding is messy.
- We are taught to be egotistical in our identity.
- It's time to rebuild.
- The world is constantly changing its ability to contaminate you.
- Ego means edging God out.
- You're one phone call away from a nervous breakdown.
- You can't change by fixing things on the outside.
- The enemy wants you to be afraid of change.
- Reading your bible will not change your life.
- We are all uncomfortable with change.
- Jesus is a shape changer.
- Nobody can control you but your unwillingness to change.
- You need a community to help you know the timing.
- It's going to happen when it's supposed to happen.
