

The Economy Of Grace

- The call to die to self is hard.
- Repentance is not something to feel guilty about.
- A healthy church is full of diversity.
- You can ascend until you die.
- “Love breaks the yoke”
- Ego is rooted in performance and acceptance.
- Moralism is a merit system.
- People follow you when they see you change.
- Ego can only accept things it understands.
- A person on the merit system will end up with a poverty mindset.
- Love is always expressed in suffering.
- It is impossible to abuse someone who receives Gods love.
- “His love has no boundaries.”
- Merit manipulates.
- You're programmed win-win chip.
- Will you just let God love you?
